

University of Central Florida's Student Perception of Instruction

Fall 2021 (1730) End of Semester

English, College of Arts & Humanities

Leah Jones

ENC4415.0001 - DIG RHETORICS & MOD DIALECTIC

Number of Students Enrolled: 25

1. What did you like best about the course and/or how the instructor taught it?

I like how all the assignment have great topic to write about and it's pretty enjoying to writer about.

2. What suggestions do you have for improving the course and/or how the instructor taught it?

I think some reading responses need to be change because of how some topic aren't really useful for the final assignments at the end of the class.

1. What did you like best about the course and/or how the instructor taught it?

very personable teacher and will listen to anything you have to say

2. What suggestions do you have for improving the course and/or how the instructor taught it?

offer an in person and online stream for those who couldnt attend

1. What did you like best about the course and/or how the instructor taught it?

The readings were all well balanced and challenged the students to think beyond the physicality of the digital world. An excellent course for both computer science majors and those interested in rhetorical studies such as Digital Rhetorics. The course was extremely engaging and was catered to the interests of the students in such a way that students participated more actively than normal rhetoric courses. The instructor used a variety of pedagogical practices that encouraged the success and interests of her students.

2. What suggestions do you have for improving the course and/or how the instructor taught it?

The course could be altered only slightly to engage students in more peer to peer conversations. Towards the end of the semester Professor Jones did strive to include more discussions however the culture hadn't been developed at the beginning and so conversations sometimes fell flat between peers. I would suggest introducing Edbauer, I think the next group of students would really benefit from reading more maybe more frequently.

University of Central Florida's Student Perception of Instruction

Fall 2021 (1730) End of Semester

English, College of Arts & Humanities

Leah Jones

ENC4415.0001 - DIG RHETORICS & MOD DIALECTIC

Number of Students Enrolled: 25

1. What did you like best about the course and/or how the instructor taught it?

..

2. What suggestions do you have for improving the course and/or how the instructor taught it?

..

1. What did you like best about the course and/or how the instructor taught it?

Everything

2. What suggestions do you have for improving the course and/or how the instructor taught it?

Nothing

1. What did you like best about the course and/or how the instructor taught it?

Very nice, cares about her students.

2. What suggestions do you have for improving the course and/or how the instructor taught it?

no comment

1. What did you like best about the course and/or how the instructor taught it?

The instructor was very knowledgeable on the subjects and made the class a fun environment to learn.

2. What suggestions do you have for improving the course and/or how the instructor taught it?

No improvements needed.

University of Central Florida's Student Perception of Instruction

Fall 2021 (1730) End of Semester

English, College of Arts & Humanities

Leah Jones

ENC4415.0001 - DIG RHETORICS & MOD DIALECTIC

Number of Students Enrolled: 25

1. What did you like best about the course and/or how the instructor taught it?

the in class discussions were awesome. they did a great job of cementing new concepts by connecting them to things we already know.

2. What suggestions do you have for improving the course and/or how the instructor taught it?

more incentive for students to show up in class. and the 2 readings each week were a bit long, especially as we got closer to the major assignments being due.

1. What did you like best about the course and/or how the instructor taught it?

Engagement between professor and students was top tier. Felt like a real college class.

2. What suggestions do you have for improving the course and/or how the instructor taught it?

(No response.)